

Aiken Green Horse Environmental Stewardship Awards

Business - Recognize a small business that practices energy or environmental conservation within its business.

Some examples: Energy conservation, carbon footprint reduction, promoting climate-friendly practices, reducing emissions, integrating sustainability green products, supply chain management, material reuse, communication strategies, recycling processes, other business-related environmental endeavors.

Citizen - Recognize someone in our community.

Some examples: Someone who is involved in: land preservation, land conservation, natural resource conservation, waste reduction, innovations in transportation, or leadership in renewable energy.

Elected Official - Recognize a local or state elected official.

Some examples: land preservation, land conservation, natural resource conservation, waste reduction, innovations in transportation, or leadership in renewable energy.

Nonprofit - Recognize a non-profit organization.

Some examples: Stewardship of natural resources, energy conservation, community-building, conservation or education within these fields.

Youth - Recognize a K-12 student or youth group.

Some examples: restoring native habitats, recycling in schools and communities, construction of nature preserves, tree planting, installing renewable energy project, creating media such as a newsletter or social media campaign focused on environmental issues.

